"POULTRY AND POULTRY PRODUCTS ACT."

NOTICE is hereby given that by Order in Council No. 1568, approved the 10th day of July, 1948, His Honour the Administrator in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulations made by the Minister of Agriculture pursuant to the provisions of the "Poultry and Poultry Products Act," being chapter 40 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1940:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE GRADING AND MARKING OF DRESSED AND EVISCERATED POULTRY.

INTERPRETATION.

1. (a) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, "Act" means the "Poultry and Poultry Products Act," chapter 40 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1940.

(b) "Consumer" means a person who receives or purchases poultry solely for the use of himself or his family.

(c) "Crooked breast-bone" means a breast-bone that interferes with the amount and arrangement of the meat.

(d) "Canadian Standards for Dressed and Eviscerated Poultry" means the kinds, sub-kinds, and grades of dressed and eviscerated poultry named and defined in these regulations.

(e) "Dressed poultry" means poultry from which blood and feathers have been removed, but does not include eviscerated poultry.

(f) "Eviscerated poultry" means dressed poultry from which the head, the legs at the hock joints, and all entrails and internal organs have been completely removed.

(g) "Grade" means to mark a bird, in accordance with these regulations, with the grade name established for such bird by these regulations, and "graded" and "grading" have corresponding meanings.

(h) "Minister" means the Minister of Agriculture of the Province of British Columbia.

(i) "Pin-feather" means a miniature feather so protruding through the skin that it can be extracted.

(j) "Producer" means a farmer who ships, transports, or sells as dressed poultry or eviscerated poultry only poultry raised on his own farm.

(k) "Inspector" means an inspector appointed under the provisions of the Act.

APPLICATION OF REGULATIONS.

2. (a) The provisions of these regulations shall apply to the Cities of Victoria, Vancouver, New Westminster, Duncan, and Nanaimo, and to the Municipalities of Oak Bay, Esquimalt, Saanich, Burnaby, North Vancouver, and West Vancouver.

(b) The provisions of these regulations shall not apply to a producer who sells, transports, or delivers direct to a consumer dressed poultry produced on his own farm.

DRESSING.

3. For the purpose of these regulations, poultry shall be dressed as follows: They shall be starved for sufficient length of time before being killed to empty crops, during which time they should have access to clean drinking-water; they shall be properly bled so that no blood remains in the extremities, and shall be dry, wet, or wax plucked, with all feathers and hairs removed, except that, if so desired, a few feathers may be left around the head; they shall have their feet and toes clean and vents flushed; all blood shall be removed from the mouth and they shall have their crops empty; they shall be removed from the killing to the cooling room as soon as practicable after dressing; they shall have their heads wrapped; birds showing feed in the crop or crop discoloration shall have the crop removed, preferably through the back of the neck, but if the crop is not neatly removed the bird shall be lowered at least one grade.

CANADIAN STANDARDS FOR DRESSED AND EVISCERATED POULTRY.

4. The grades established by these regulations shall be known as "Canadian Standards for Dressed and Eviscerated Poultry."

5. The kinds, sub-kinds, and grades for dressed poultry and eviscerated poultry shall be as follows:—

Kinds.	Sub-kinds.
Chickens.....	Squab Broilers, Broilers, Fryers, Roasters, Poulards, Capons, Stags.

(ii) In the case of other chickens, fowl, ducks, and guineas shall not be more than one-half inch in length; and

(iii) In the case of turkeys and geese shall not be more than three-quarters inch in length.

(2) Grade A (or Grade A Milk-fed in the Case of Chickens).—To qualify for this grade, poultry shall:—

(a) Be of normal physical conformation with no deformities, but may have a slightly crooked keel-bone that does not interfere with the arrangement and placement of the meat:

(b) Be relatively well fleshed in relation to length and depth of body, but may have slightly prominent keel-bones:

(c) Have the breast, back, hips, and pin-bones in the case of chickens showing fat, and in the case of other poultry reasonably well covered with fat:

(d) Have not more than six pin-feathers on the breast or more than twelve elsewhere on the body:

(e) Have no prominent discoloration from any cause exceeding one-half inch square on the breast or 1 inch square elsewhere on the body; and

(f) Not have on the breast more than one tear exceeding one-quarter inch in length or more than three small tears; tears elsewhere on the body of the birds shall not exceed two in number; and

(i) In the case of chickens, fowl, ducks, pigeons, and guineas shall not be more than one-half inch in length; and

(ii) In the case of turkeys and geese shall not be more than three-quarters inch in length.

(3) Grade B.—To qualify for this grade, poultry shall:—

(a) Be of normal physical conformation, but may have slightly crooked keel-bone:

(b) Be reasonably well fleshed, having insufficient flesh to meet the requirements of Grade A:

(c) Have sufficient fat to prevent a dark-red appearance:

(d) Be sufficiently well plucked that any remaining pin-feathers will not detract from the appearance of the bird:

(e) Have no prominent discoloration exceeding 1 square inch; and

(f) Not have more than two tears exceeding one-half inch in length on the breast; tears elsewhere on the body shall not exceed three in number; and

(i) In the case of chickens, fowl, ducks, pigeons, and guineas shall not be more than one-half inch in length; and

(ii) In the case of turkeys and geese shall not be more than 1 inch in length.

(4) Grade C.—To qualify for this grade, poultry shall be fairly well fleshed and not badly discoloured from any cause, shall not have tears exceeding 4 inches in length or pin-feathers that seriously detract from the appearance of the bird.

(5) Grade D.—Shall include all birds that do not qualify for any of the higher grades, but which are fit for human consumption.

DETENTION.

8. (1) An Inspector may place under detention any dressed or eviscerated poultry that has been graded, packed, marked, shipped, transported, or imported in violation of the provisions of the Act or these regulations.

(2) The Inspector shall attach to one box or bird in any lot placed under detention a numbered detention-tag bearing the words "Under Detention—Department of Agriculture," together with a brief description of such lot, the date, and the Inspector's signature.

(3) Immediately after placing any dressed poultry under detention, the Inspector shall deliver or mail to the owner of the dressed or eviscerated poultry or his agent a duly completed form of "Notice of Detention"; if such dressed or eviscerated poultry is in premises other than those of the owner, a copy of the "Notice of Detention" shall be given to the person in whose premises the poultry is located.

(4) The Inspector shall designate in the "Notice of Detention" the premises to which any poultry detained hereunder shall be taken.

(5) When an Inspector is satisfied that any dressed or eviscerated poultry detained hereunder complies with these regulations, he may issue a duly completed form of "Notice of Release"; one copy of such "Notice of Release" shall be delivered to the owner or his representative and one copy to the person in possession of the dressed poultry.

(6) Detention-tags shall not be removed from any poultry by anyone other than an Inspector.

GENERAL.

9. (1) Except where dressed or eviscerated poultry is sold and delivered direct to a consumer by a producer otherwise than in or through a retail store, all dressed or eviscerated poultry offered for sale to consumers in retail stores, public markets, or otherwise, or to hotels, restaurants, barbecues, or any person commercially engaged in serving meals, shall be marked in a manner approved by the Minister to denote the grade of the bird, the number of the registered station at which the poultry was graded as required by these regulations, together with the word "Canada."

(2) Tags or marks used to denote the grade of the bird shall be coloured purple, red, blue, or yellow-brown in the case of grades "Special" (or "Special Milk-fed"), "A" (or "A Milk-fed"), "B," and "C" respectively.

(3) The form, colour, lettering, place, and method of attachment of tags used in the grading of dressed poultry shall be as prescribed by the Minister.

(4) In the case of old turkeys the tag or grade mark shall bear the word "old."

(5) All dressed or eviscerated poultry in retail-store premises, public markets, hotels, restaurants, barbecues, or any places where meals are served commercially, whether or not in view of the public, shall be deemed to be kept for sale, and all markings for such birds as required by these regulations shall be clear and legible.

(6) Any advertisement pertaining to dressed or eviscerated poultry shall state the kind and grade of poultry offered for sale and, in the case of turkeys, whether they are young or old.

10. (1) No person shall either by himself or through the agency of any person sell, offer, or have in possession for sale, ship, or deliver dressed or eviscerated poultry marked, labelled, tagged, or described on the containers or otherwise with or by the name of any grade, kind, or sub-kind specified in these regulations unless the dressed or eviscerated poultry conforms in all respects to such grade, kind, or sub-kind.

(2) Any dressed or eviscerated poultry that does not conform to or is below the grade specified by any tag or mark thereon shall be deemed to be misbranded.

11. (1) No person shall publish any untrue, deceptive, or misleading advertisement in respect of dressed or eviscerated poultry offered or held for sale or distribution.

(2) Any advertisement that contrary to the fact applies either directly or indirectly to any dressed or eviscerated poultry, any grade, kind, or sub-kind set forth in these regulations, shall be deemed to be untrue, deceptive, or misleading.

12. With respect to conformation, flesh, amount of fat, and dressing (tears, pin-feathers, discoloration from bruising or improper bleeding) of any dressed or eviscerated poultry sold or delivered to a buyer, the registered station, the number of which appears on any such poultry, shall be responsible at all times.

13. With respect to condition (musty, mouldy, discoloration from putrefaction, or dried, leathery, or discoloured skin) of any fresh or frozen, dressed or eviscerated poultry sold or delivered to a buyer by the registered station, the number of which appears on any such poultry, the station shall be responsible for twenty-four hours after delivery to or defrosting thereof by the buyer, as the case may be.

14. All boxes containing poultry to which these regulations apply shall conform to the specifications for Standard Dressed Poultry Boxes as set forth by the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

15. All boxes containing poultry to which these regulations apply shall be clearly and legibly stencilled on the outside of at least one end in black, block letters and figures three-quarters of an inch in height with stems of letters one-eighth of an inch in width and letters approximately one-half inch wide, except in the case of the word "tagged" which shall be letters of one-quarter inch in height with thin line stems so as correctly to show:—

- (a) In the left upper corner: The number of birds in the box. This mark may be omitted in the case of a box containing twelve (12) birds, the recognized pack.
- (b) In the left lower corner: "Tagged" if, and only if, all the birds in the box are wing-tagged. In this corner may also be shown the gross weight of the package under "tagged."
- (c) In the right lower corner: The net weight.
- (d) In the centre: Kind and sub-kind on the first line, the word "grade" followed by the grade designation on the second line, and where the term "milk-fed" is employed, on the third line.
- (e) In instances where the kind and sub-kind are partly designated by the same word, only one name need be used.
- (f) In the marking of turkey boxes both kind and sub-kind shall be shown. The sub-kind may be indicated by the first letter or letters of the sub-kind.
- (g) Stags and Roosters must be branded as such.

No person shall place on any such box any mark or design other than those required by this regulation, unless authorized by the Minister.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

R. S. STUART YATES,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(c) To apply for, obtain, register, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own, use, operate, introduce, and sell, assign or otherwise dispose of, any and all trade-marks, formulae, secret processes, trade names and distinctive marks, and all inventions, improvements, and processes used in connection with or secured under letters patent or otherwise, of Canada, or of any other country; and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any and all such trade-marks, patents, licences, concessions, processes and the like, or any such property, rights, and information so acquired, and, with a view to the working and development of the same, to carry on any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which the Company may think calculated, directly or indirectly, to effectuate these objects:

(d) Generally to purchase, take on lease, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire and to hold, own, sell, convey, and deal in any real or personal property; or any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, and capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(e) To take part in the management, supervision, and control of the business or operations of any undertaking, shares or securities of which are held by the Company, or in which the Company is otherwise interested, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any directors or accountants or other experts or agents:

(f) To transact all kinds of agency business, to negotiate loans, to find investments, to carry on business as capitalists, financiers, brokers, and manufacturers' agents; to purchase or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, and deal in real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, shares, stocks, debentures, securities, book debts, and any interest in real or personal property and any claims against such property or against any person or company; to advance money on the security of stocks, shares, buy, sell, and deal in warrants, bonds, debentures, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, choses in action, coupons, and other negotiable or transferable or non-negotiable securities or documents; to subscribe for, underwrite, issue on commission, or otherwise take, hold, and deal in shares and securities of all kinds; to carry on business as promoters and to form, constitute, float, assist, and control companies and undertakings:

(g) To carry on the business of shipbuilders, ship repairers, ship chandlers and salvors, and to acquire, lease, own, and operate ships ways, docks, drydocks, sheds, warehouses, machine shops, and other conveniences:

(h) To manufacture, alter, convert, buy, sell, hire, deal in, and operate vessels, ships, boats, tugs, scows, barges, dredges, and water craft of every description, including the machinery, engines, parts, and supplies therefor:

(i) To act as vessel agents, cartage agents, wharfingers, warehousemen, forwarders, and carriers of passengers and of goods by land and water:

(j) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and to sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with same:

(k) To acquire, develop, and maintain mines, mineral claims, and mining rights, and to construct and operate all plants and appliances necessary to the profitable working of the same or any of them:

(l) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in automobiles, trucks, tractors, farm machinery, and implements, cars, flying machines, and other vehicles, their parts and accessories, and kindred articles:

(m) To allot credited as fully or partly paid up shares or bond, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company or for services or other valuable consideration:

(n) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company.

The objects set for in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause, or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, deal with or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.
